respondent No. 2 at the time of quashing the FIR. He states that he has received a sum of Rs.50,000/- in cash from the petitioners and he has no claim whatsoever remaining against the petitioner and does not wish to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Statements of the parties have been recorded separately.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences voluntarily and of their own free will and without any coercion, pressure, and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question. Consequently, FIR No.57/2016 registered at police station-Crime Branch, Delhi for the offences punishable U/s 406/420/468/471/120-B of Indian Penal Code, 1860 and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The petition alongwith pending applications is disposed of.
