The applicant came to know that her sister-in-law, deceased had committed suicide on 17.08.2017, whereas she, the applicant was married on 17.02.2004 and had been living in her matrimonial home with her two children and husband.

It is also submitted that the false and frivolous FIR registered at PS Narela related to allegations of dowry death against the applicant, though there was an extra marital relationship between the deceased Seema and a neighbour in relation to which the husband of the applicant/petitioner also lodged a complaint regarding false implication but the police officials of PS Narela without inquiring into the matter registered a false case against the applicant and the applicant apprehends her arrest in the present case.

It has also been submitted on behalf of the applicant that there was a conversation between the deceased and her mother on 17.08.2017, a few hours before her demise, indicating that all was normal and that the applicant has a CD of the same.

On behalf of the State, the application has been vehemently opposed and it has been submitted by the Id. Taking into account the allegations against the applicant without any observations on the merits or demerits of the case, the anticipatory bail as prayed cannot be granted.
