Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that some of the petitioners and the respondent No.2 are relatives and due to a misunderstanding arisen between them, the aforesaid FIR was got registered by the respondent No.2/complainant against the petitioners. Counsel further submits that after registration of the FIR, the near relatives and the friends intervened and the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and the same has been reduced into writing on 8th March, 2016 in respect of one set of property and 10th August, 2017 qua another set of property. Counsel further submits that the said settlement has been acted upon between them voluntarily and without any force, pressure or coercion and nothing further remains to be adjudicated between them, however, the present FIR is coming as hurdle in the personal life of the petitioners and prays that the present FIR may be quashed.

Looking into the above facts and circumstances, since the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and the same has been reduced into writing on 8th March, 2016 and 10th August, 2017 and the same has been acted upon between them and nothing further remains to be adjudicated between the parties, to have peace in the life of the parties and better relationship between the parties, who are relatives and related to each other and to meet the ends of justice, I deem it appropriate to quash the FIR in question and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.
