06.11.2017

This writ petition seeks release of the petitioner on parole for a period of one month to enable him to engage a counsel to file a Special Leave Petition against his conviction, before the Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as to arrange resources/finance for the proposed appeal.

A perusal of the petitioner's Nominal Roll dated 21.09.2017 reveals that his conduct in jail has been satisfactory since the inception of his incarceration. The petitioner has already undergone incarceration for about six years five months and nineteen days out of the total sentence of rigorous imprisonment of ten years. Furthermore, the petitioner had earlier been released on regular bail by this Court in the past, with effect from 04.12.2006 to 30.01.2017 and is stated to have not misused the liberty granted to him.

A person in long incarceration is entitled to parole in order to re-establish social and family ties and for his mental and physical wellbeing.

A person in long incarceration is entitled to parole in order to re-establish social and family ties and for his mental and physical wellbeing.

In view of the foregoing, the Court finds no impediment in allowing the present petition. Consequently, the petitioner is enlarged on parole for a period of four weeks from the date of his release on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent concerned subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) The petitioner shall report to the SHO, concerned Police Station Inder Puri, Delhi, once a week on every Tuesday during the period of parole.
- (2) He shall furnish his mobile telephone, which he undertakes to keep operational at all times, to the SHO concerned.
- (3) He shall not leave the territory of NCT of Delhi.
- (4) The petitioner shall surrender before the jail authorities at the expiry of the period of parole.

With the above directions the writ petition is disposed off.

A copy of this order be given dasti to the learned counsel for the parties.
