quashing the FIR. She states that she has received a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- from the petitioners through demand draft No.041127 dated 21.11.2017 drawn on ICICI Bank, 07, Connaught Place, New Delhi and she has no claim whatsoever remaining against the petitioner and does not wish to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Statements of the parties have been recorded separately.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences voluntarily and of their own free will and without any coercion, pressure, and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR No.201/2013 for the offences punishable under Sections 498-A/406/34 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 (in short 'IPC'), registered at PS-Hari Nagar, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The petition alongwith pending application is disposed of.
