ORDER

16.11.2017

It is submitted that petitioners and respondent no.2 have settled their disputes amicably, therefore, FIR No. 344/2017 under Sections 420/120B/34 IPC registered at police station Subhash Place, on the complaint of respondent no.2, may be quashed. Respondent no.2 has alleged in the FIR that petitioner no.1 was their employee. He booked hotels on different dates and different places by using their company portal resulting loss to the tune of ₹4.50 lacs to the respondent no.2.

Respondent no.2 is present in Court and has been identified by SI Amit Kumar of police station Subhash Place. He submits that he has settled the matter with the petitioner no. 1 before the Delhi Mediation Centre, Rohini Court, on 24th July, 2017 of his own free will and without any undue force, pressure or coercion. Respondent no.2 further submits that entire settled amount has been received by him. He has no objection in case FIR is quashed against all the petitioners.

Keeping in mind that a settlement has been arrived at between the petitioners and respondent no.2 and respondent no.2 has no objection in quashing of the FIR, in the interest of justice, aforesaid FIR and the consequent proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

Petition is disposed of in the above terms.

Dasti.
