ORDER

12.12.2017

The petitioner seeks parole for a month to attend to his wife who is stated to be suffering from psychiatric ailments in the nature of depression and suicidal tendencies. She is undergoing treatment at the DDU hospital in its OPD. This aspect has been verified by the police as well as the residence of the petitioner. Ms. Richa Kapoor, the learned counsel for the State submits that the petitioner's co-accused has jumped parole and NBWs have been issued against him for 18.01.2018.

Be that as it may, the conduct of the co-accused cannot have a bearing upon the present application, all the more so since the petitioner was granted parole twice after the co-accused had misused the liberty granted to him. The petitioner's conduct is otherwise satisfactory.

In view of the verified medical exigency, the petitioner is granted parole for a period of four weeks from the date of his release on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent concerned, subject to the following conditions:

- (1) The petitioner shall report to the SHO, concerned Police Station once a week on every Tuesday during the period of parole;
- (2) the petitioner shall furnish his mobile telephone number, which shall be kept operational at all times, to the SHO concerned;
- (3) the petitioner shall not leave the territory of NCT of Delhi;
- (4) the petitioner shall surrender before the jail authorities at the expiry of the period of parole.

The petition stands disposed off in the above terms.

A copy of this order be sent to the Jail superintendent concerned and a copy be also served through the police.

Copy of this order be given dasti to the learned counsel for the parties under the signatures of the Court Master.
