Respondent No. 2 is present in Court today and is identified by the learned counsel and the Investigating Officer. She states that she has settled the matter with the petitioner in terms of aforesaid settlement dated 03.06.2016 recorded before Mediation Centre, Saket Courts, New Delhi. As said settlement, the petitioners were required to pay a sum of ₹1,00,000/- to the respondent No. 2 at the time of quashing the FIR. She states that today she has received a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) through DD No.414431 dated 08.09.2017 drawn on Corporation Bank, Sarita Vihar, Delhi-110027 and she has no claim whatsoever remaining against the petitioner and does not wish to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Statements of the parties have been recorded separately.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences voluntarily and of their own free will and without any coercion, pressure, and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question. Consequently, FIR No.979/2014 for the offences punishable under Sections 498-A/406/34 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 registered at Police Station-Ambedkar Nagar, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The petition is disposed of.
