The wife of the petitioner, Usha is present in Court with the petitioner. She states that she had gone to her parental home. Her parents, however, were not willing to let her return and only after this petition was filed, they agreed to let her come back. She states that she wishes to reside with her husband.

Mr. Akhtar has tendered in court the status report, which is taken on record.

Since the petitioner's wife has returned and is living with him, this petition has become infructuous and the same is disposed of as such.
