ORAL ORDER

2 25-07-2018 In the nature of allegations made in the first information report, this Court cannot act in place of the Investigating Officer of the case and at the same time the Court does not find any reason to stop the investigation at the threshold. The allegations as per the report, which is the part of the first information report are that of certain omissions and commissions and this Court has been informed that the investigation in the matter is still going on.

This Court, thus, does not find it fit to interfere with the investigation. The petitioners will have the liberty to move afresh, if so advised, after the investigation is complete and in case the petitioners are summoned after taking cognizance.

This writ application stands disposed of accordingly.
