CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JYOTI SARAN

ORAL ORDER

3 14-03-2018

Learned counsel for the parties are present.

It is not in dispute that in compliance of the order of this Court quashing the suspension order the petitioner has joined his post and even though a grievance is raised regarding non-payment of salary by the respondents despite joining of the petitioner but then in absence of mandamus to such effect no case for contempt is made out and even though it is obligation cast on the respondents to make payment of the salary of the petitioner, once he is joined, unless there is reason for doing so, the forum to espouse such grievance for the petitioner would be otherwise than in a contempt jurisdiction and he shall be at liberty to exhaust the same.

The contempt application is disposed of.
