CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 27-11-2018

None appears for the petitioner however, Mr. Rakesh Kumar Jha, learned counsel for the BISCOMAUN is present.

The present writ application has been filed basically for payment of arrears of salary and other retiral dues. The relief prayed for, as stipulated in paragraph no.1 of the writ application reads as follows:-

“That this writ application is filed for issuance of appropriate writ(s) directing the respondents to make payment of arrears of salary gratuity, provident fund,
acquired leave salary, family pension and reserved money which have not been paid till now by the respondent to the petitioner who was a watchman in the service of respondents and retired on 31.01.2013.”

Mr. Rakesh Kumar Jha, learned counsel for the BISCOMAUN submits that in pursuance to the order dated 12.05.2016, passed in C.W.J.C. No. 9190 of 2014 (Harendra Chaudhary Vs. State of Bihar), retiral dues of the employee of the BISCOMAUN is being paid in chronological order and the petitioner will be paid his retiral dues on his own turn.

Considering the stand of learned counsel for the BISCOMAUN, it is expected from the concerned authority to make payment of arrears of salary and other retiral dues to the petitioner in chronological order, when his term comes.

Accordingly, with the above observation and direction, the present writ application is disposed of.
