CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 24-01-2018

Inter alia, contending that an order passed on 11.05.2011 in CWJC No. 11455 of 2006 has not been complied with, this application has been filed for initiating action for contempt.

The writ petition was disposed of by an innocuous order directing the respondents to settled the undisputed claim of the petitioner. The respondents have settled the claim of the petitioner at an amount as per their calculation. According to the petitioner, the calculation contained in Annexure-3 to the writ original writ petition was the undisputed amount and this amount has not been paid till date.

According to the petitioner, the undisputed amount is more than 23 lacs and he has been paid a sum less than the aforesaid amount, i.e. about 14 lacs.

Taking note of the fact that undisputed amount as per the calculation made by the respondents has been paid, now in the facts and circumstances, I see no reason to make any indulgence. In case the petitioner feels that amount as per his calculation and entitlement have not been done and paid, liberty shall be available to the petitioner to claim it afresh in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid, this application is disposed of.
