CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

8 16-01-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the opposite party.

It has been pointed out in the show-cause filed by the State that the petitioner was merely working on an honorarium in the office of the District Rural Development Agency, Araria. The guidelines of the District Rural Development Agency, Araria which as been annexed clearly provides organizational structure of the DRDAs and the sanctioned posts which are available therein.

It appears from the Annexures 'A', 'B' and 'C' that the petitioner had only worked on occasions on an honorarium and not on daily wages as had been averred in the writ application.
Even now, it appears that the petitioner is not clear as to whether he had worked on daily basis or on an honorarium. Moreover, the case of the petitioner having been duly considered and in view of the fact that he had never been employed on daily wages and his services has been taken from time to time into service and also having perused the show-cause whereafter closely reverting to the terms of the directions issued in the order, this Court finds that no case under the Contempt of Courts Act is made out against the opposite parties.

The contempt application thus stands dismissed.
