CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 12-03-2018

The petitioner has challenged the order dated 23.05.2015 passed by the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Bhagalpur in Miscellaneous (Execution Case No. 09 of 2009, arising out of Miscellaneous (Maintenance) Case No. 99 of 2005.

No good ground has been made out for any interference in the order impugned.

The maintenance amount which was fixed has not been paid and therefore, execution proceedings have been initiated against the petitioner. If at all, the petitioner was aggrieved by the quantum of maintenance, he ought to have approached the appropriate Courts for reduction of the amount or otherwise. In the absence of the petitioner having challenged the quantum of maintenance or the refusal of the Courts to interfere with the same, there is no way in which there could be any interference in the execution proceedings.

The present petition is misconceived and is, therefore, dismissed.
