ORAL ORDER

3 23-02-2018 The petitioner is aggrieved by order dated 02.02.2005 by which the petition filed by the petitioners for discharge has been rejected by the learned 1st Additional Sessions Judge-cum-Special Judge SC/ ST Act, Muzaffarpur.

The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that he is mainly aggrieved by that part of the order by which the learned Court below has found sufficient materials against the petitioners for the offence under Section SC /ST Act. It is further submitted that no offence under Section SC/ST Act is made out.

A report was called for from the Court below which has been received wherein the learned Court below has mentioned that the case is now fixed for argument. In view of such, from the report of the learned Court below, it appears that all the witnesses in the case have been examined and the case has been fixed for final argument. Therefore, at this stage, this Court does not deem it proper to interfere with the order impugned.

This Cr. Misc. application is , accordingly, dismissed.

The learned Court below is directed to proceed with the case in accordance with law and made effort to deliver final judgment in the case as early as possible.
