ORAL ORDER

2      04-04-2018                      In view of the stand taken by the respondents in paragraphs 6 and 7 of the counter affidavit, the present writ petition has lost its utility and it has now become infructuous.

The statements made in paras 6 and 7 of the counter affidavit are as follows:-

“6. That the promotion Committee admitted the case of the petitioner and granted him the pay scale of Graduate Trained who in service in Matric Trained Scale by the then authority. A photo copy of the Memo No. 923(Ni), dated 16.05.2017 is enclosed herewith as Annexure-A to this counter affidavit.

7. That since the grievances of the petitioner has been met at par right his junior teachers and thus it has been redressed, as such there seems no further cause of action to proceed in this matter further ahead and as such it may please be dropped in the initial stage of admission itself and oblige.”

The writ petition is, accordingly, disposed of.
