CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

3 09-07-2018 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioner is in custody since 10.03.2018 in connection with Sessions Trial No.1066/2000 arising out of Maner P.S. Case No.108 of 1996 registered for the offence under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 324, 307 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was totally in dark about the institution of the case against him and he had no knowledge that the process under Sections 82 and 83 of the Cr.P.C. was ever executed or sought to be executed against him. It is further submitted that the petitioner is a poor unskilled labourer and was working outside his home since long and it was only when he came back to his village home, that he has been taken into custody in connection with the present case.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner shall present himself at each and every date in future so as to facilitate further investigation and co-operate in the trial at all material times. It is further submitted that no specific role has been attributed to him and he was only present at the place of occurrence with rod.

In view of the aforementioned facts and circumstances and that in the past, the petitioner has no criminal antecedents, let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on his furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional District Judge-II, Danapur, in connection with Sessions Trial No.1066/2000 arising out of Maner P.S. Case No.108 of 1996, subject to the following conditions:

(1) One of the bailors will be his own blood relative, preferably, father, mother, brother, sister and/or his wife.

(2) The petitioner shall not indulge himself in any similar offence till conclusion of the trial.

(3) The petitioner shall remain physically present in court on each and every date during trial and in the event of his failure on two consecutive dates without sufficient reasons, his bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled by the learned court concerned.

(4)The petitioner shall co-operate with the investigation, if not already concluded, and make himself available as and when so required and in case of failure, the State shall be at liberty to move for cancellation of bail.
