ORAL ORDER

2 11-01-2018 Heard both sides.

Petitioner apprehends his arrest in Bhagwanpur P.S.

Case No.88 of 2017 registered under Section 467, 468, 471, 420, 120B and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The gist of the allegation that the petitioner got appointment on the basis of a forged matriculation marksheet. On verification, it was found that the petitioner having Roll Code 6328 Roll No.648 got 452 marks in matriculation examination from B.S.E.B. but the petitioner submitted forged marksheet showing Roll Code 6328 Roll No.648 and marks obtained by him is 568 and petitioner was shown to have passed the matriculation examination in the 1st division on the basis of which petitioner was appointed.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has already been terminated from the service. The petitioner is a trained teacher but from perusal of the F.I.R., which was lodged after thorough enquiry, it was found that the petitioner submitted false marksheet of matriculation examination. In fact, he got 452 marks in the matriculation examination but the petitioner submitted the marksheet showing that he got 568 marks and on such, he was appointed.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
