CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

4 11-07-2018 This writ application seems to be totally misconceived inasmuch as these petitioners, being accused in a complaint case, want their application should be considered by the learned Magistrate even though they have not appeared in the Court.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that these petitioners have appeared through their Advocate by filing such petitions, however, is unable to show that they have either obtained bail and surrendered in the court below or have obtained exemption or dispensation with their personal appearance in terms of Section 205 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. In absence of any such pleadings, the grievance of the petitioners that their applications filed in the complaint case are not being considered, seems to be totally misconceived.

The writ application stands dismissed.
