2. The petitioner apprehends arrest in connection with Keoti P.S. Case No. 157 of 2017 instituted under Sections 447, 448, 452, 341, 323, 354(A), 354(B), 379, 504 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The allegation against the petitioner is that he came into the house of the informant at 11.00 P.M. and trying to outrage the modesty and also taking away two thousand rupees cash and silver Payal from both the feet of the informant.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that both the parties are next door neighbours and the dispute is with regard to closing of the ventilation area by the informant's side which was objected by the petitioner leading to the false implication. It was submitted that both the parties belong to poor labourer class and to settle the dispute relating to the ventilation of the house, he has been falsely implicated in the present case.

5. Learned A.P.P. submitted that there is specific allegation against the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and submissions of learned counsel for the parties, in the event of arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks from today, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned A.C.J.M.-VII, Darbhanga in connection with Keoti P.S. Case No. 157 of 2017, subject to the conditions laid down in Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

7. The petitioner and the bailors shall execute bond with regard to good behaviour of the petitioner. The petitioner shall also give an undertaking to the Court that he shall not indulge in any criminal activity. Any violation of the terms and conditions of the bonds or the undertaking shall lead to cancellation of his bail bonds. The petitioner shall cooperate in the trial and be present before the Court on each and every date. Failure to cooperate on two consecutive dates, without sufficient cause, shall also lead to cancellation of his bail bonds.
