CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 05-09-2018 Heard learned counsels for the parties.

This is the third attempt on behalf of the petitioners for grant of anticipatory bail in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148,341, 323,324,307, 337,338,379 and 504 of the IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioners, however, confines his prayer only to the extent of extending the period of surrender of the petitioners.

The prayer of the petitioners was rejected as not pressed vide order dated 3.10.2013 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 29345 of 2013. Thereafter the petitioners renewed their prayer for anticipatory bail in Cr. Misc. No. 46176 of 2016 wherein this Court vide order dated 22.10.2016 declined to revise the earlier order and directed the petitioners to surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from the date of the order.

The prosecution case is that on the order of co-accused Kameshwar Mishra, petitioner no. 3 Sonu Kumar Mishra assaulted with the gupti on the head of the informant, but injury was caused on the left eye brow. When the son of the informant Sushil Kumar raised alarm, co-accused Kameshwar Mishra and three others assaulted the informant with iron rod whereas petitioner no. 2 Niwasan Mishra assaulted with the butt of the pistol. When the informant fell down then petitioner no. 1 Amarendra Kumar snatched Rs.15000/- from the pocket of the informant. On hearing the voice of informant's son, villagers came and pelted stones when the accused persons escaped from the scene.

In view of the confined prayer of learned counsel for the petitioners, the period of surrender of the petitioners is extended by three weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order in connection with Sarairanjan P.S. Case No. 266 of 2012 pending in the Court of the learned ACJM-IV, Samastipur.

This application is accordingly disposed of.
