ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 09-01-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

This application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been filed for quashing the first information report of Samastipur Town P.S. Case No.226 of 2015 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the allegations made in the FIR are patently false. He submitted that the petitioner did not obtain any false certificate and the allegations levelled against her are erroneous on facts.

On going through the contents of the FIR and the allegations made in the FIR, I find that there is direct and specific allegation against the petitioner that she obtained government job on the basis of a forged certificate of M.Sc.

The allegations made in the FIR do attract ingredients of cognizable offence.

In that view of the matter, I see no reason to quash the FIR or to interfere with the investigation of the case.

Accordingly, the application being devoid of any merit, is dismissed.
