CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR
JHA
ORAL ORDER

4 02-01-2018

Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Lalganj P.S.
case No. 09 of 2014 for the offences punishable under Section 392
of the Indian Penal Code.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is not named in the FIR. The informant lodged the case against two unknown persons alleging therein that they forcibly got up in his pick-up van loaded with spice and they sold away the spice and fled away with pick-up van after tying him with a tree.
The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner was arrested in Lalganj P.S. case No. 33 of 2014 but he was not remanded in this case. The petitioner was not put in T. I. parade.

Similarly situated other accused persons have already been granted regular bail.

It appears that, of course, the petitioner is not named in the FIR but the name of petitioner figured in the case on the basis of confessional statement made by him in Lalganj P.S. case No. 33 of 2014. It is a case of highway robbery of a vehicle loaded with spice. The petitioner has got criminal antecedent.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
