ORAL ORDER

3 27-02-2018 After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the application in order to approach the court below for regular bail on surrender of the petitioners.

Permission is granted.

In the event the petitioners surrender and pray for regular bail, the court below is directed to consider the regular bail petition on its own merit without being prejudiced by the withdrawal of this case. The court below is also required to dispose of the application for regular bail on surrender of the petitioners on the date the petitioners surrender.

With the aforesaid, the application stands disposed of.
