CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 15-01-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner; State;
respondent no. 3; respondent no. 4 and respondent no. 5.

2. It is common ground at the Bar that the grievance of the petitioner stands redressed. From the materials on record, it transpires that dues of E.P.F. have been paid and with regard to gratuity, the matter is pending before the Division Bench in L.P.A.
No. 327 of 2014 and its analogous cases.

3. In view thereof, the writ petition stands disposed off with the observation that the decision passed by the Division Bench in L.P.A. No. 327 of 2014 shall be the basis for any claim of the petitioner with regard to gratuity.

4. Furthermore, the petitioner shall also be at liberty to file a detailed representation if it transpires that there has been any error in the calculation made by the authorities or any further amount remains unpaid. If such representation is filed within four weeks from today before the respondent no. 4, the same shall be considered and disposed off by passing a reasoned order within one month thereafter. If it is found that any further amount is required to be paid to the petitioner, the same shall also be paid within four weeks from the date of passing of the order.
