CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE S. KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

5 31-01-2018 This petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India was filed for quashing the order dated 07.11.2012 by which services of the petitioner was terminated by the District Magistrate-cum-Chairman, District Health Society, Nawada.

Petitioner was appointed on the post of District Programme Manager on contractual basis for three years on consolidated amount of Rs. 23000/-per month under the National Rural Health Commission Scheme and appointment was coterminous with the scheme or three years whichever is earlier.

Pursuant to direction of Hon'ble Patna High Court with respect to irregularities committed by petitioner, same was examined by the District Magistrate and her services were terminated, when in inquiry she was found guilty. The agreement of contractual appointment was liable for termination on one months notice. The appointment of petitioner on 21.06.2010 was for three years period and after lapse of three years, contract appointment came to end, as such, no relief can be granted to petitioner as contractual period of appointment is over and, as such, present writ petition has become infructuous and is being dismissed as becoming infructuous.
