CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY PRIYA
ORAL ORDER

2 08-08-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Rupaspur P.S.

Case No. 340 of 2017 instituted for the offence under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is owner of the vehicle. There is no paper submitted by the informant with the complaint petition about amount due as alleged in the written report.

In the written report it is alleged that petitioner gave his car for servicing in the workshop of the informant and he took away the car without making payment of bill.

In such circumstances from the allegation in the written report it is apparent that there is money dispute for which civil remedy is available to the informant to redress his grievance.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed. In the event of surrender/arrest of the petitioner, named above, within six weeks from today, in connection with Rupaspur P.S. Case No. 340 of 2017, he shall be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-II, Danapur, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) Cr. P.C. with further conditions (1) bailors should be local having sufficient immovable property within the jurisdiction of the court concerned, (2) petitioner shall cooperate in the trial and shall be present on each and every date fixed by the court and his absence on two consecutive dates without proper and reasonable reason will be liable to cancel his bail bond and (3) if petitioner tampers with the evidence or the witnesses of the case, in that case, prosecution will be at liberty to move for cancellation of bail of the petitioner.
