CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

8 07-05-2018 The petitioner has challenged the final order dated 31.03.2015 passed in Maintenance Case No. 177 of 2010 by the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Katihar whereby the petitioner has been directed to pay a sum of Rs. 2000/- per month to opposite party from the date of passing of the order.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the court below, even though had framed the question whether the opposite party no. 2 was entitled to maintenance, and if so, for what amount, the court did not answer the aforesaid questions and has, in a general manner, directed for payment of Rs. 2000/- per month to the opposite party.

From the perusal of the impugned order, it appears that the court below has categorically answered the question and has held that opposite party is the legally married wife of the petitioner. So far as the income of the petitioner is concerned, the court below has taken note of the fact that there is no documentary evidence related to his income, but has fixed the aforesaid quantum of maintenance on the ground of age and the expected income of the petitioner.

This court is also of the view that the amount of maintenance fixed by the court below is not excessive.

No good ground has been made out by the learned counsel for the petitioner for this Court to interfere with the aforesaid final order.

This petition is dismissed.
