CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY
ORAL JUDGMENT
Date: 19-06-2018

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and State.

Mr. Uma Shankar Prasad, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that the petitioner is entitled to the revised pay scale of Rs. 8,000/- per month, as the same pay was made inadmissible to all time lecturers in the whole State. He submits that in Veer Kunwar Singh University also other part time teachers have been paid pay of Rs. 8,000/- per month w.e.f. 01.01.1996, but the same was denied to the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner was superannuated in 2004 and this benefit of revised pay scale vide Annexure-A was admitted in the University w.e.f. 20.01.2005.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the University very fairly submits that in the University no one has been paid the pay scale and if others have been paid the Pay of Rs. 8,000/- per month, as part time lecturer w.e.f. 01.01.1996, the University will examine the matter and extend the same treatment to this petitioner, otherwise the University will take corrective measures and pass appropriate order after hearing the person likely to be adversely affected, if the same is not admissible.

In view of the above, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Registrar, Veer Kunwar Singh University to examine the claim of the petitioner and if it is found that other part time lecturers have been paid the scale of Rs. 8,000/- per month w.e.f. 01.01.1996, the same benefit should be extended to this petitioner upto the date of superannuation in 2004. In case, it is found that others have been wrongly granted such benefit, the University may take corrective measures for the same. The entire exercise in this regard must be taken by the University within a maximum period of three months from today.

Notwithstanding Annexure-6, the University will take final decision with regard to the claim of the petitioner.
