CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

2 12-09-2018 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioner has been in custody since 08.08.2017 in connection with Sanhoula P.S. Case No. 160 of 2017 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302 and 201 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the trial of the case is under progress and there is no cogent evidence against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the State, however, submits that at the time of rejection of the earlier petition vide order dated 18.01.2018 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 60663/2017, the matter was considered at length and the prayer for bail of the petitioner was rejected for valid reasons.

Considering the aforementioned facts and circumstances, I am not inclined to grant regular bail to this petitioner as there was cogent material available before the Court to indicate the complicity of the present petitioner in strangulation of the baby child whose body was subsequently found in a well.

As such, the prayer for bail is again rejected.

However, the trial Court is directed to expedite the trial so as to conclude the same positively within a period of six months.
