ORAL ORDER

2 17-12-2018 Heard both sides.

Petitioner seeks bail in Karja P.S. Case No.156 of 2018, registered under Sections 498(A), 315 and 494 of the Indian Penal Code and under Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The petitioner is the husband of the complainant. The present case was lodged on the basis of the complaint filed by the complainant. The complainant alleged that the petitioner demanded additional dowry immediately after marriage and on account of non-fulfillment of demand of dowry, the petitioner subjected his wife to physical and mental torture. On account of physical torture, the complainant got miscarriage of three months pregnancy.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner never demanded any dowry. There is no medical certificate to support the allegation of miscarriage. Petitioner is still ready to keep his wife and on account of petty dispute between the husband and wife, petitioner is rotting in jail for more than 3½ months.

Considering the facts that the petitioner being husband of the complainant is in jail for more than 3½ months and ready to keep his wife, petitioner, above named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned ACJM, 2nd, (West), Muzaffarpur in connection with Karja P.S. Case No.156 of 2018.
