CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD

ORAL ORDER

6 06-09-2018 In view of the order as contained in Annexure 'A' to the show cause filed on behalf of O.P.No.4, the order of the learned writ Court stands complied with.

It appears the petitioner had moved this Court earlier in the writ Jurisdiction seeking consideration of her claim for compassionate appointment. Pursuant to the order of the learned writ Court the Electrical Executive Engineer has now considered the claim of the petitioner for compassionate appointment but has been rejected by a reasoned order.

At this stage, now in this contempt proceeding, learned counsel for the petitioner is trying to agitate an issue as to payment of compensation to the petitioner in view of the own circulars and guidelines of the Power Company. Since, there is no such direction of the learned writ Court, sitting in its contempt jurisdiction, this Court would not like to issue any fresh direction to the Opposite Parties. It is however, left open for the petitioner to raise her claim for compensation if admissible in terms of the own policy decision of the Power Company.

This application stands disposed off, accordingly.
