CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

2 02-11-2018 The petitioner has moved this Court seeking a direction to the respondent authorities to release the petitioner from the custody on the ground that the petitioner has already served his sentence of life imprisonment. It is stated in the writ application that the wife of the petitioner has given a representation before the authority concerned in this regard, however, copy of such representation has not been brought on the record.

Learned counsel for the State is present and submits that there is nothing on the record to show that the petitioner has made an appropriate application seeking his release before the Remission Board.

In the given facts and circumstance of the case, in the opinion of this Court, this writ application is misconceived and cannot proceed.

If the petitioner is of the opinion that he has become eligible for getting a release after serving his sentence, he is required to make an appropriate application before the Remission Board in this regard which may be considered by the Board in accordance with law on the subject.

This application stands dismissed.
