CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN
PRASAD

ORAL ORDER

2 16-08-2018

It appears that the petitioner has moved this Court directly under Article 226 of the Constitution of India without taking recourse to the remedy available to him under the Code of Criminal Procedure. The allegation is that the co-villagers of the petitioner, as named in paragraph 4 of the writ application, have attacked on the house of the petitioner, brutally assaulted him and his family members and have also ousted them from the village and they have illegally captured the entire landed property of the petitioner. It, however, appears that the petitioner has not lodged any FIR in this regard and the occurrence which is said to have taken place in the month of February, 2015 has not been reported to the nearest police station.

This Court, sitting in its writ jurisdiction, will not go into taking enquiries as to the correctness of the allegations. It is for the petitioner to seek his remedy by taking recourse to the provisions of the law existing in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The application stands disposed off with the aforesaid observations.
