Allegation in brief is that informant was enticed away by Rahul Kumar Paswan and brought her to his house thereafter he and the petitioner both raped her two days, thereafter she returned back to her home.

Submission is that petitioner seeks bail on the ground of parity as the similarly situated co-accused Rahul Kumar Paswan has already been admitted to bail by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 01.02.2018 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 5337 of 2018 and on merit, it is submitted that the said occurrence is said to have taken place in presence of her younger sister, so the case ought to have been instituted soon after the occurrence but the FIR was lodged after delay of three days and also returned back herself.
