CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHWANI KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

5 21-02-2018 It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that during the pendency of the present application, which was initially filed for quashing of the first information report of Nawada P.S. Case No.30 of 2015 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420 and 406 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, the investigating officer submitted charge-sheet and taking into consideration the materials available on record the learned Magistrate took cognizance of the offences and after dismissal of the application filed under Section 239 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (for short 'the Cr.P.C.') charges have also been framed. He submitted that in view of the subsequent development, this application may be disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to challenge the order taking cognizance and all subsequent proceedings of the case by way of filing another appropriate application.

Leave is granted.

The application under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. and all other interlocutory applications are disposed of.

It would be open to the petitioners to challenge the order taking cognizance and all other subsequent orders by way of filing another appropriate application before the Court.
