Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that so far as the present petitioner is concerned, he was found sitting in another room of the house where the raid was conducted. Pointing out the seizure list, learned counsel submits that the seizure of incriminating materials/articles have been shown from the possession of the co-accused Vikash Kumar and Rockey Kumar. It is submitted that thrust of the allegations is against the house owner Munna Jee and two ladies Soni Devi and Usha Devi who are said to be involved in running the brothel house. It is further submitted that this petitioner has got no criminal history, he has been falsely implicated in this case on mere suspicion and in absence of any articles from his possession he cannot be connected with the present case.
