The petitioner is in custody since 22.02.2018 in registered for the offence under Sections 302, 120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though the petitioner is not named in the F.I.R., subsequently after a lapse of one year, the informant has given a petition, of his son. Learned counsel submits that those who had been initially named in the F.I.R. have also been extended the privilege of bail, as indicated by the petitioner in paragraph 8 of the bail application. It is further submitted that there is no cogent material against the petitioner, save and except the said petition made by the informant at a belated stage.

Considering the aforementioned facts and circumstances, let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on his furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Sub-Judge-Cum-Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patna, in connection with Phulwarisharif P.S. (4)The petitioner shall co-operate with the investigation, if not already concluded, and make himself available as and when so required and in case of failure, the State shall be at liberty to move for cancellation of bail.
