CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

4. 25-04-2018 Heard Shri Rabindra Kumar Priyadarshi, learned counsel for the petitioner.

The present petition has been filed for restoring an another restoration petition i.e. M.J.C. No. 1011 of 2016, which stood dismissed on 28-02-2017, due to non-prosecution. The restoration petition (i.e. M.J.C. No. 1011 of 2016) was filed for restoration of Civil Review No. 148 of 2012, which stood dismissed due to non-compliance of peremptory order dated 01-02-2013. By the said order, one week peremptory time was allowed to comply the order of the Lawazima Board. Despite the fact that the review petition stood dismissed due to non-compliance of peremptory order, which was passed in the month of February, 2013, restoration petition was filed after several years i.e. in the year 2016, that too stood dismissed due to non-prosecution and thereafter, the present restoration petition has been filed.

I have heard Sri Priyadarshi, learned counsel for the petitioner. He tried to persuade the Court for allowing the restoration petition.

However, in view of facts and circumstances, particularly; the fact that civil review stood dismissed long back in the year 2013, there is no reason to entertain the present restoration petition, which has been filed primarily for restoring the restoration petition.

The petition stands dismissed.
