Date : 03-01-2018

From the averments made by the respondents in the show-cause and the averments made in Paragraph 11 and the order passed, as is evident from Annexure-B, it is clear that the recognition of the school in question has been restored.

That being so, now no further action is required to be taken in the matter. In case the petitioner is entitled to any further consequential benefit after such restoration, he may claim it in accordance with law, for which necessary representation may be made before the competent authority .

With the aforesaid liberty to the petitioner, the matter stands disposed of.
