CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 19-01-2018

In view of the show cause filed by the respondents, it is seen that the claim of the petitioner has been settled in accordance to the details indicated in the show cause. The order passed in the writ petition was an innocuous order. The Court has clearly held that it is not going into the merit of the matter and only gives liberty to the petitioner to make a representation and the respondents to consider the same. The respondents from the show cause goes to say have paid P.F. dues to the petitioner, fixed his pension, paid arrears of pension and various other claims raised in the writ petition.

In case the petitioner has any grievance with regard to settlement of his claim, he may ventilate the same afresh in accordance with law.

The application is disposed of with the aforesaid liberty.
