Petitioners are not named in the FIR and the case is of kidnapping and abduction of son of the informant. Later on name of the petitioners transpires during course of investigation in the statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioners is that except vague allegation that petitioners were also present there is nothing in the statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. and the case has been compromised and other co-accused persons have been granted privilege of anticipatory bail by this Court vide order dated 5.8.2014 passed in Cr.Misc.No. 19394 of 2014.

Heard learned APP also.

Having heard both sides and in the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

However, if the petitioners surrender and make prayer for regular bail, learned court below shall consider the same on merit and on the basis of submission as stated above.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of.
