Allegation as per FIR against the petitioner is that one Chandan Kumar contacted the son of the informant on WhatsApp and gave his account number and asked him to deposit the money for passing in the T.E.T. Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that except suspicion there is nothing against the petitioner.

Heard learned A.P.P. also, who has opposed the prayer for bail on the ground that he has criminal antecedent and he is accused in two other cases of similar type.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from the date of order and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the learned court below on its own merit without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
