CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

- 3 13-02-2018 On call, none appeared on behalf of the petitioners either to press this petition or to make a prayer for adjournment, whereas learned Addl. Public Prosecutor as well as Sri A.K.Sinha, learned counsel for the informant are present.

I have perused the material on record, particularly the statement made in paragraph-3 of the petition. Earlier incorrect statement was made regarding clean antecedent of the petitioners, however after permission of the Court, learned counsel for the petitioners corrected the statement made in paragraph-3 of the petition and it has been indicated that besides the present case, petitioners are accused in another case registered for the offence under Section 307 and other allied

Sections of the Indian Penal Code. In the present case, there is accusation that the petitioners were threatening the informant side as well as deceased not to depose in the case relating to murder and, thereafter, son of the informant was done to death and there is specific suspicion against the petitioners.

Considering the fact that petitioners are having criminal antecedent, there is no reason to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

The petition stands dismissed.
