The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail in connection with Ahiyapur, P.S. Case No. 54 of 2018, registered for offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code.

As per F.I.R., allegation against the petitioner is that he introducing himself to be agent of City Finance Service to the informant and asked the informant that if he will deposit Rs.3,00,000/- in the said Company, he would get Rs.6,00,000/- in lieu thereof and, thereafter, the informant deposited Rs.3,00,000/ through cheque in the said company but he did not receive any amount.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and petitioner was neither the agent of the company nor anyways connected with the said City Finance Service. It is further submitted that nothing was entrusted by the petitioner to the informant and nothing material has been found against the petitioner.

Learned A.P.P. opposes the prayer for bail.
