CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

3 07-05-2018 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner, being the husband, is in custody since
25. 04.2017 in connection with Sessions Trial No. 629 of 2017 arising out of Didarganj P.S. Case NO. 82 of 2017 for the offence registered under Sections 304B & 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though the allegation against the petitioner is of assaulting the deceased, the injuries do not indicate that there is any assault. The petitioner has already been in custody for more than one year.

Diary of the present case was called for which has since been received.

Learned counsel for the State, after perusal of the case

diary, submits that there is ample material in the case diary including the statement of independent witnesses, which goes to reveal that the petitioner had been torturing the lady and in pursuance of such torture, the deceased was killed and, the event took place within seven years of marriage.

Having considered the entire facts and circumstances of the case and also that there is ample evidence in the case diary, I am not inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner. It is, accordingly, rejected.

Let the trial of the case be expedited.
