ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

8 03-01-2018 In the matter of appointment of petitioner as Aanaganwadi Sewika at the Centre in question was being shifted to another place as per policy decision and while the petitioner expressed the inability to work at the new centre, the impugned action has been taken for appointing a fresh candidate in the new centre and learned writ Court has gone into the various aspects of the matter and found that once under a policy decision the centre is being shifted, the petitioner has to move to the new centre or to discontinue. In doing so, the learned Writ Court has not committed any error warranting reconsideration.

The Appeal stand dismissed.
