ORAL ORDER

5 29-01-2018 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Phulwarisharif P.S. Case No. 406 of 2017 registered for the offence punishable under sections 302, 120(B), 201 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation against the petitioners herein is strangulating their mother resulting in her death.

The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the allegation levelled against them is false and concocted inasmuch as the property did not belong to the mother of the petitioners, hence there was no occasion to kill their mother.

I have perused the case diary and I find that the charge sheet has already been filed by the Police finding the case to be true as against the petitioners herein. Further the postmortem report also shows that the deceased died on account of asphyxia.

In such view of the matter, I do not find the case to be a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected.
