CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN
ORAL JUDGMENT
Date: 03-04-2018

These writ petitions have been taken up together for disposal with the consent of the parties as they involve common issue. The petitioners are aggrieved variously by the reduction of the quota of kerosene oil by the Government of India as well as by the action of the State Government voluntarily surrendering the kerosene oil from the quota so allotted by the Government of India under the Voluntary Deduction Scheme in order to earn incentive thereof, for the financial year 2017-18.

2. At the very outset learned counsel for the respondents raises a preliminary objection to the effect that these writ petitions have now become infructuous in view of the period for which the grievance has been made, namely, financial year 2017-18, which has already ended.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners appear and have been heard.

4. This Court finds substance in the submission of the respondents. It is evident from a perusal of the relief sought in the various writ petitions that the thrust of the challenge has been made with respect to the financial year 2017-18 and for which facts and figures have been furnished in the writ petitions. The writ petitions are accordingly dismissed as infructuous.

5. It is however, made clear that this Court has not entered into the merits of the claims and contentions raised on behalf of the petitioners, which they shall be at liberty to raise for the appropriate period, if the nature of the grievance remains, if so advised.
